

CLUE #1

"Billy caught sight of a printed notice propped up against the glass in one of the upper panes. It said BED AND BREAKFAST. He went right up and peered through the glass into the room, and the first thing he saw was a bright fire burning in the hearth. On the carpet in front of the fire, a pretty little dachshund was curled up asleep with its nose tucked into its belly."

"Normally you ring the bell and you have at least a half-minute's wait before the door opens. But this dame was a like a jack-in-the-box. He pressed the bell - and out she popped! It made him jump."

"[The landlady] was not only harmless - there was no question about that - but she was also quite obviously a kind and generous soul."

CLUE #3

CLUE #4

"Now and again, he caught a whiff of a peculiar smell that seemed to emanate directly from her person. It was not in the least unpleasant, and it reminded him - well, he wasn't quite sure what it reminded him of. Pickled walnuts? New leather? Or was it the corridors of a hospital?"

CLUE #6

"You have the most beautiful teeth, Mr Weaver, did you know that?"

CLUE #5

"'That parrot,' he said at last. 'You know something? It had me completely fooled when I first saw it through the window from the street. I could have sworn it was alive.' 'Alas, no longer.'"
