

INSPIRE ★ EXPLORE ★ PREPARE

Lane Regional Promise

Lane Regional Promise

Lane Regional Promise is a sponsored dual credit partnership between Lane Community College and Lane County high schools that certifies teachers to teach courses for college credit.

Courses Offered for 2024–25

- ED 100 – Introduction to Teaching
- SOC 204 – Introduction to Sociology
- ES 101 – Historical Racial and Ethnic Issues
- MATH 105Z – Math in Society
- MATH 111Z – Precalculus I: Functions
- WR 121Z – Composition I
- Computer Science (TBD)

LPR MISSION

WE ENSURE that EACH and EVERY learner receives the necessary resources they need individually to succeed by:

- Reducing the predictability of who does not have access to accelerated learning opportunities
- Interrupting practices that negatively impact vulnerable and marginalized students

LRP Process:

Attend Summer Institute

- 7/29 and 7/30 ~ LRP Orientation and equitable instruction professional learning @ Lane ESD
- 7/31, 8/1, & 8/2 ~ Content-Specific (course content and assessment)

Participate in Year-Long PLC

- Meet with cohort and PLC lead 1x monthly for content-specific professional learning and support
- Access LCC student supports and resources with LCC HS Connections

Participant Stipend

- Teachers who complete the program successfully are paid a $900 stipend for participation and can apply for ongoing dual credit status through College Now

Contact Us

Dr. Leah Dunbar: ldunbar@lesd.k12.or.us
Ariana Schwartz: aschwartz@lesd.k12.or.us