

1. Mayan pyramids would most likely be found in (country) _____.
2. In many Latin American countries, a major cause of _____ problems has been the uneven distribution of land and wealth.
3. _____ caused the forced migration of millions of Africans to the Americas from the 1500's to the 1800's.
4. Thousands of people have emigrated from the Caribbean Islands in search of _____
5. _____ was created by the United States, Mexico, and Canada to eliminate trade barriers on one another's goods.
6. _____ was created to increase economic strength of its members by creating a free trade zone in the region.
7. Brazil's capital was moved to _____ because the government wanted to draw people away from the coast.
8. A major difference between Brasilia and other major cities in Brazil is that Brasilia is located in the _____ of the country on the Brazilian Highlands.
9. The climate of the Caribbean is mostly (climate type) _____
10. Millions of African were forced to immigrate to the Caribbean Islands by _____ colonists as slaves.
11. _____ is most important to the economy of the Caribbean Islands.
12. People with both Native American and European ancestors are called _____
13. Bananas, cacao, rice, and sugarcane grow at which elevation zone? _____
14. The greatest contribution to air pollution in Mexico City is _____.
15. _____ is used by farmers in hilly or mountainous regions.

16. _____, which is used by farmers, prevents soil erosion.
17. The largest climate type is South America can be described as _____ and _____.
18. Because of warm temperatures and plentiful rainfall, the natural vegetation in areas nearest the Equator consists of an abundance of thick tropical _____.
19. _____ (South American continent) is mostly dry desert.
20. In temperate regions, _____ undergo long-distance migration to warmer climates.
21. Of the types of agriculture listed, which is used the least in Latin America: subsistence farming, plantation agriculture, slash and burn farming, paddy farming _____.
22. The _____ and the _____ influenced the development of South America by bringing diseases that killed vast numbers of Indians, spreading Roman Catholicism among the natives, and establishing a rigid social structure in the region.
23. Widespread unemployment in the Caribbean Islands has forced many islanders to _____ to other countries.
24. Because it lies on four tectonic plates, Mexico's central plateau is under constant threat of _____ and _____ activity.
25. One of the negative effects the Spanish and Portuguese had on the development of South America was the introduction of _____ that killed large numbers of American Indians.
26. The increase in the _____ is an issue that has increased world focus on Latin America.
27. Rapid _____ to Mexico's cities has produced a strain on the infrastructure of the city.
28. The region of Latin America, named for the _____ based languages people speak, includes Mexico, Central America, and South America.

29. The main religion in Latin America is _____.
30. Which type of agriculture is practiced the most in Latin America?

31. The climate of Latin America is greatly influenced by _____
32. The effects of colonialism and slavery are still evident on most of the _____ Islands.
33. Central America's land is dominated by (landform) _____