Lincoln Douglas Debate Topics

Directions: Along with your "partner," read through the LD topics below and choose the three that you would most like to debate. Put a "1" next to your first choice, "2" for second choice, and "3" for third choice. I will try my best to ensure that you get the resolution that you want. Really spend some time thinking about all of the different angles and implications of each resolution before deciding. If you would rather write your own LD resolution, you must get it approved by Mrs. Snell.

- 1. Resolved: The United States ought to prioritize the pursuit of national security objectives above the digital privacy of its citizens.
- 2. Resolved: Placing political conditions on humanitarian aid to foreign countries is unjust.
- 3. Resolved: In the United States criminal justice system, truth-seeking ought to take precedence over attorney-client privilege.
- 4. Resolved: In a democracy, voting ought to be compulsory.
- 5. Resolved: Oppressive government is more desirable than no government.
- 6. Resolved: The United States is justified in intervening in the internal political processes of other countries to attempt to stop human rights abuses.
- 7. Resolved: Rehabilitation ought to be valued above retribution in the United States criminal justice system.
- 8. Resolved: The United States ought to guarantee universal health care for its citizens.
- 9. Resolved: The United States ought to extend to non-citizens accused of terrorism the same constitutional due process protections it grants to citizens.
- 10. Resolved: A government has the obligation to lessen the economic gap between its rich and poor citizens.
