

Presenting Dogwood's Literacy Fair

March 11th – 14th 2024

How do I participate?

1. Hand the participation slip in to your teacher by Friday, March 1st
2. Choose a book to read on your own or with a parent
3. Create a book project to be presented at the fair in a fun way
4. Bring your project to school on Monday, March 11th.
Please do not bring it early!

What are the requirements?

All book projects must include:

Book Title

Author

Genre

A printed/hand drawn book cover

Fiction books should include:

Character description

Setting

Problem/Solution

Brief summary

Nonfiction books should include:

Topic

Facts learned

What type of project can I make?

Cereal box

Timeline

Diorama

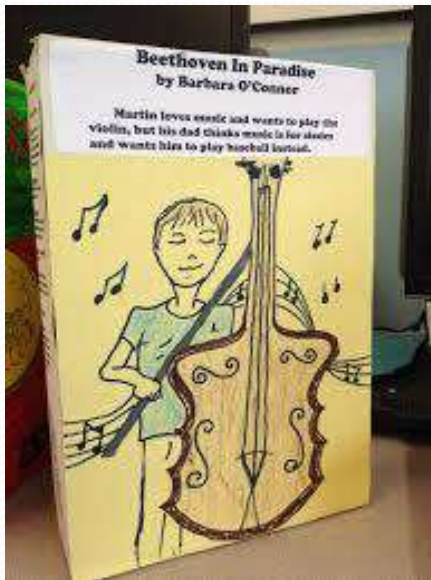

Tri-fold board

Poster board

Flipbooks

Filmstrip

Newspaper

Sample Projects

Sample Projects

Pizza Book Report
using
Good Day Sunshine Kit
by Jacque Larsen

Sample Projects

Sample Projects

Sample Projects

Sample Projects

Click the books below to view projects from the last few years!

2022 Literacy Fair

2023 Literacy Fair

Do I have to participate?

Although you do not have to participate, we would LOVE to have you be a part of the Dogwood Literacy Fair.

Please join us in sharing a great book with your peers in a fun way!

