

LORD OF THE FLIES

CHRONOLOG

Fill in each blank in the following chronology to keep track of the basic events of the plot, focus your reading, and prepare for reading checks.

Chapter One: "The Sound of the Shell":

1. "The boy with fair hair" is named _____.
2. The boys were stranded on the island after a _____.
3. The _____ caused a good deal of destruction on the island that Golding describes as a _____. It is later dragged out to sea.
4. Back in the world, Piggy lives with _____. He suffers from _____.
5. Ralph is _____ years old.
6. Piggy eats a great deal of fruit, resulting in _____.
7. Ralph's father is _____.
8. The boys left England due to _____.
9. Ralph finds a _____, but he doesn't know what it is. _____ knows its name.
10. _____ blows the _____ to gather the other boys on the island.
11. Piggy and Ralph meet twin boys named _____ and _____.
12. A red-haired boy named _____ arrives, leading a group of boys who belonged to _____.
13. _____ faints.
14. The boys elect _____ their leader, even though the choir supports _____.
15. _____, _____, and _____ explore the island together.

16. Jack finds that he cannot _____, but he promises to do so next time.

Chapter Two: "Fire on the Mountain":

1. The boys decide to use _____ to provide orderly discussion during meetings. _____ comes up with this idea.
2. A littlun, physically distinguished by _____ on his face talks about being afraid of _____.
3. _____ does not believe in a beast; _____ says he will hunt it.
4. The first major plan determined through meeting is _____.
5. The boys start a fire by _____.
6. Jack states that the boys should be able to do anything because they are _____.
7. The boys' plan turns destructive when _____.
8. _____ goes missing after the fire.

Chapter Three: "Huts on the Beach":

1. The chapter begins with a description of _____'s physical change.
2. _____ and _____ are the only boys who seriously work toward building shelters.
3. _____ doesn't help with the shelters because he is too busy _____.
4. Jack remarks that when he is hunting, he feels as though _____.
5. While the others work, play, and talk _____ walks off by himself to a place deep in _____.

Chapter Four: "Painted Faces and Long Hair":

1. _____ and _____ destroy the sand castles created by two littluns.
2. After destroying the sand castles, _____ throws rocks at a littlun, but he does not hit the littlun because _____.
3. Jack discovers that he can hunt more effectively by _____.
4. The boys continue to treat _____ as an outsider.
5. Ralph spots _____, but he notices that _____ is not going because _____.
6. Upon killing the pig, Jack asks Ralph to help him mark the occasion through _____.
7. In frustration, Jack hits _____ causing _____.
8. Surprisingly, Jack _____ to _____.
9. In telling the story of the hunt, Jack and the hunters _____.
10. After this, Ralph _____.

Chapter Five: "Beast from Water":

1. This new meeting must be _____, not _____.
2. Ralph notices that he can't _____ like Piggy can.
3. Ralph discusses four problems in the meeting:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

4. Piggy notes that the only fear can come if they _____.
5. The littlun Percival recites _____, bothering some of the others.
6. Percival says the beast comes from _____.
7. Simon hypothesizes that the beast is _____.
8. Ralph won't _____ for fear that it might not work.
9. _____ tells Ralph to keep being chief.

Chapter Six: "Beast from Air":

1. A _____ falls from the sky.
2. _____ and _____ mistake _____ for the beast.
3. _____ joins Jack to hunt the beast.
4. Upon approaching the unexplored, rocky part of the island, _____ volunteers to go first and _____ follows him.
5. _____ likes the new part of the island; _____ does not.

Chapter Seven: "Shadows and Tall Trees":

1. Ralph notices that, besides being filthy and unkempt, he has begun _____.
2. Simon predicts that Ralph _____.
3. Ralph feels the excitement of the hunt when he _____.
4. During the ritual re-enactment of the hunt, the boys come close to hurting _____.
5. The boys don't wait for _____ before encountering the beast.
6. _____ returns to Piggy.
7. _____ and _____ climb the mountain to confront the beast. _____ joins them.

Chapter Eight: "Gift for the Darkness":

1. _____ blows the conch to call a meeting.
2. Jack calls Ralph a _____.

3. Jack calls a veto to "impeach" Ralph, but _____. Unhappy, Jack _____.
4. After the splitting of the boys, Ralph, Simon, and Piggy propose three different plans:
 - Ralph: _____
 - Simon: _____
 - Piggy: _____
5. _____ proposes making a list of the remaining boys.
6. Jack suggests that the boys _____ the beast.
7. The hunters kill _____.
8. The hunters want to make a cooking fire, but _____.
9. Jack commands Roger to "sharpen a stick at both ends," meaning _____.
10. The Lord of the Flies is _____.
11. The hunters return to the beach to _____.
12. Piggy thought the hunters had returned to steal _____.

Chapter Nine: "A View to a Death":

1. Simon questions the Lord of the Flies, but _____.
2. Simon confronts the beast and discovers that _____.
3. _____ and _____ seek the hunters.
4. At the hunters' part of the island, Jack is _____.
5. Jack gives Ralph and Piggy _____.
6. Jack says that the conch _____.
7. The boys notice that the sky is threatening _____.
8. During the celebration of the hunt, the boys _____.
9. _____ floats away on the sea.

Chapter Ten: "The Shell and the Glasses":

1. _____ and _____ are the only biguns left with Ralph and Piggy.
2. Ralph says that what happened to Simon was _____, but Piggy says it was _____. Piggy tells Ralph not to tell Samneric about _____.
3. Roger _____ to defend the hunters' camp.
4. Jack disciplines Wilfred by _____.
5. The hunters believe Simon was _____.
6. Ralph forgets about _____, but _____ reminds him.
7. The hunters return to Ralph's camp to steal _____. Piggy thought they wanted _____.

Chapter Eleven: "Castle Rock":

1. Piggy insists that Ralph _____.
2. Piggy carries _____ as they approach the hunters' camp.
3. When the boys first arrive at Castle Rock, _____ is not there.
4. Ralph calls Jack a _____.
5. The hunters capture _____.
6. What happens to Piggy and who does it?

7. _____ breaks.

Chapter Twelve: "Cry of the Hunters":

1. Ralph hides _____.
2. Ralph tries to convince himself that what happened to Piggy was _____.
3. Ralph encounters _____, but it has decomposed.

4. _____ are part of the hunters' tribe now.
5. Samneric says that Roger intends to _____, but this confuses Ralph.
6. _____ reveal Ralph's hiding place.
7. The hunters try to capture Ralph by _____.
8. On the beach, Ralph encounters _____.
9. The officer asks who the boss of the island is. Ralph says _____.