

Los Verbos Regulares/Regular Spanish Verbs

In Spanish, there are three categories of verbs. The category is determined by the last two letters of the infinitive: Present tense conjugations of regular -AR, -ER, - IR verbs

-AR Verbs

In Spanish, there are three classes – verb families (or conjugations) of verbs: those that end in -AR, those that end in -ER, and those that end in -IR. This is important because the conjugation determines the endings you put on the verbs.

Los Verbos:

- Verbs are “action words” = to do something
- These 3 verb families in Spanish: -AR, -ER, -IR (are based on the endings of the infinitives of the verbs)
- The following are example verb infinitives: verb form that is found in the dictionary
 - Ex: -AR = Hablar = to dance
 - Ex: -ER = Comer = to eat
 - EX: -IR = Escribir = to write

Every verb has 2 parts

The stem + ending

- The stem of a verb is the part of the verb you get when you take the -ar, -er or -ir off of the infinitive
- Ex: Infinitive: Stem:

HablarHabl

ComerCom

EscribirEscrib

Conjugation of verbs: II Tiempo presente:

- Conjugation = changing the endings of the verb so that the verb agrees with the subject of the sentence (person doing the action of the verb)
- In English:
 - We conjugate in 2 forms and use pronouns.
 - We say “I speak, he speaks, we speak.” We don’t realize we are changing our endings.
- In Spanish:
 - the endings are more exact
 - there are 5 different endings on the stem of the verb so we know who is doing the action by the endings of the verb.
 - pronouns are therefore not necessary.

Los Pronombres Personales

Many Spanish verbs are completely regular, meaning that they follow a specific pattern of conjugation. In this lesson you will learn to conjugate regular -ar, -er, and -ir verbs (in the present tense). Before you can do that, you must memorize the following subject pronouns.

Singular	Plural
yo	nosotros
tú	Vosotros Vosotras
él / ella / Ud.	ellos / ellas / Uds.

Present-tense verbs in Spanish can have several English equivalents. Each simple expression in Spanish may convey three different ideas in English:

(Yo) estudio español:

I study Spanish.

I do study Spanish.

I am studying Spanish.

Conjugation of verbs cont'd:

- There are endings of the verb for each subject pronoun in Spanish. Therefore, each ending is different for the subject of the sentence.
- To conjugate a verb there are 2 parts: drop the infinitive and add the ending for each pronoun to the stem:

ex: Hablar = to speak
stem = Habl

Yo hablo
nosotros hablamos

Tu hablas

el/ella habla ellos/ellas hablan

Ud. habla Uds.hablan

To form the present tense (AR):

STEM

+

Verb ending

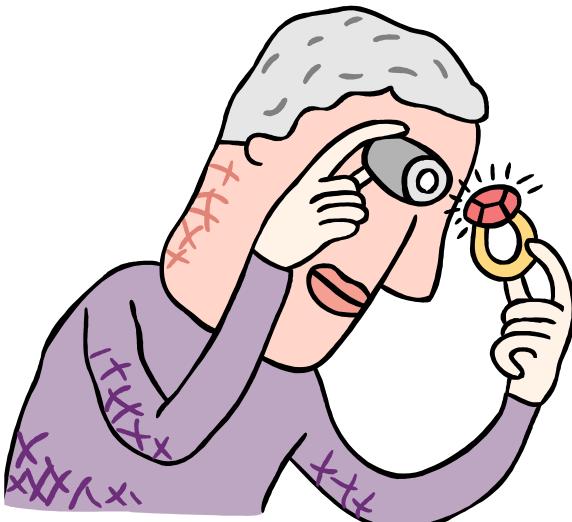

-ER endings – present tense conjugation

- ▲ The endings for regular -ER verbs are the same as for -AR verbs, except that the vowel is -E- instead of -A-!
- ▲ yo -o
- ▲ tú -es
- ▲ él, ella, Ud. -e
- ▲ nosotros -emos
- ▲ ellos -en
- ▲ ustedes -en

What about the –IR Verbs?

- ▲ Well, take a look for yourself.
Can you find the one difference?
- ▲ bebervivir
- ▲ bebovivo
- ▲ bebesvives
- ▲ bebevive
- ▲ bebemosvivimos
- ▲ bebenviven

Regular Verbs

As you can see, to conjugate regular –ar or -er or -ir verbs, simply drop the ending (–ar or –er or –ir of the infinitive verb) and add one of the following:

▲ To summarize, here are the endings for the three verb conjugations:

▲ -AR -ER -IR

▲ -o -o -o

▲ -as -es -es

▲ -a -e -e

▲ -amos -emos -imos

▲ -an -en -en

Las Preguntas (the questions)

Que significa la pregunta

When forming a simple yes/no question you open with a verb and eliminate in English the "do you" or "does he/she" because it is translated in the question with the verb already. Spanish doesn't have a "do you" translation for questions.

¿Estudia Carlos en la biblioteca?

Does Carlos study in the library?

¿Tocas la guitarra?

Do you play the guitar?
