FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS!

Have you heard?

- 66.7% of Kentucky's class of 2011 have enrolled in college
- The statewide goal for the class of 2014 is 72%
- Kentuckians with bachelor's degrees typically earn $16,000 more a year than those with just a high school diploma

What can you do?

Spread the word about the Louisville National College Fair!

National College Fairs* allow students to meet face-to-face with hundreds of college reps from across the country. The fairs also offer helpful workshops about financial aid, the application process and much more. They are free and open to the public.

Students can register for the Louisville
National College Fair today at www.gotomyncf.com

* National College Fairs are programs of the National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), a nonprofit organization of school counselors, admission officers and others involved in students' transitions to postsecondary education.
