

CHILDREN'S BOOK DRIVE

TO SUPPORT LOWELL LOVES TO LEARN

Accepting NEW or GENTLY USED books for children 0-8
years old

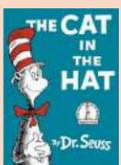

Lowell students at the Tsongas Industrial History Center, courtesy of Meghan Moore.

YOU can help us
make a difference!

Types of books needed:

- Board Book

- Early Childhood

- Young Reader

Children's Book Drive
Drop-Off Locations:

- Family Resource Center
151 Merrimack Street
Lowell, MA 01852
- Project Learn
8 Kirk Street, 2nd Fl
Lowell, MA 01852

March 5th – April 7th

Lowell Loves to Learn initiative (organized by Project LEARN, Lowell Public Schools, and the Lowell Early Childhood Advisory Council) aims to support early childhood education by providing tools and equitable resources for young children in Lowell.

The Lowell Loves to Learn “BookNook” Project is one of the major components of this initiative that aims to bring a book to every young child in our city.

Contact: Lisa Van Thiel, Early Childhood Coordinator - Lowell Public, lvanthiel@lowell.12.ma.us or (978) 674-2051

If you prefer to donate directly, visit our GoFundMe page at:
www.gofundme.com/support-book-nooks-in-lowell.

For more information on how to get involved, email aveloria@projectlearninc.org.

Complete connected care<sup>SM</sup>

This project is part of the Lowell Loves to Learn Campaign for Early Childhood, and co-sponsored by Project LEARN, and the Lowell Early Childhood Advisory Council (LECAC).

LEARN MORE AT : www.projectlearninc.org