

India

Continent: Asia

Bordering Countries: Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Myanmar, Bangladesh and China.

Geography: India is the seventh-largest country in the world. The great mountain the Himalayas is on the Northern part of India.

Map Courtesy of world book

Water Bodies:

- Arabian Sea
- Indian Ocean
- Bay of Bengal
- Brahmaputra River
- Ganges River

Climate: Three Seasons.

Average winter temperature-fifty degrees. Average summer temperature-hundred degrees.

Map Courtesy of World book

Cities in India

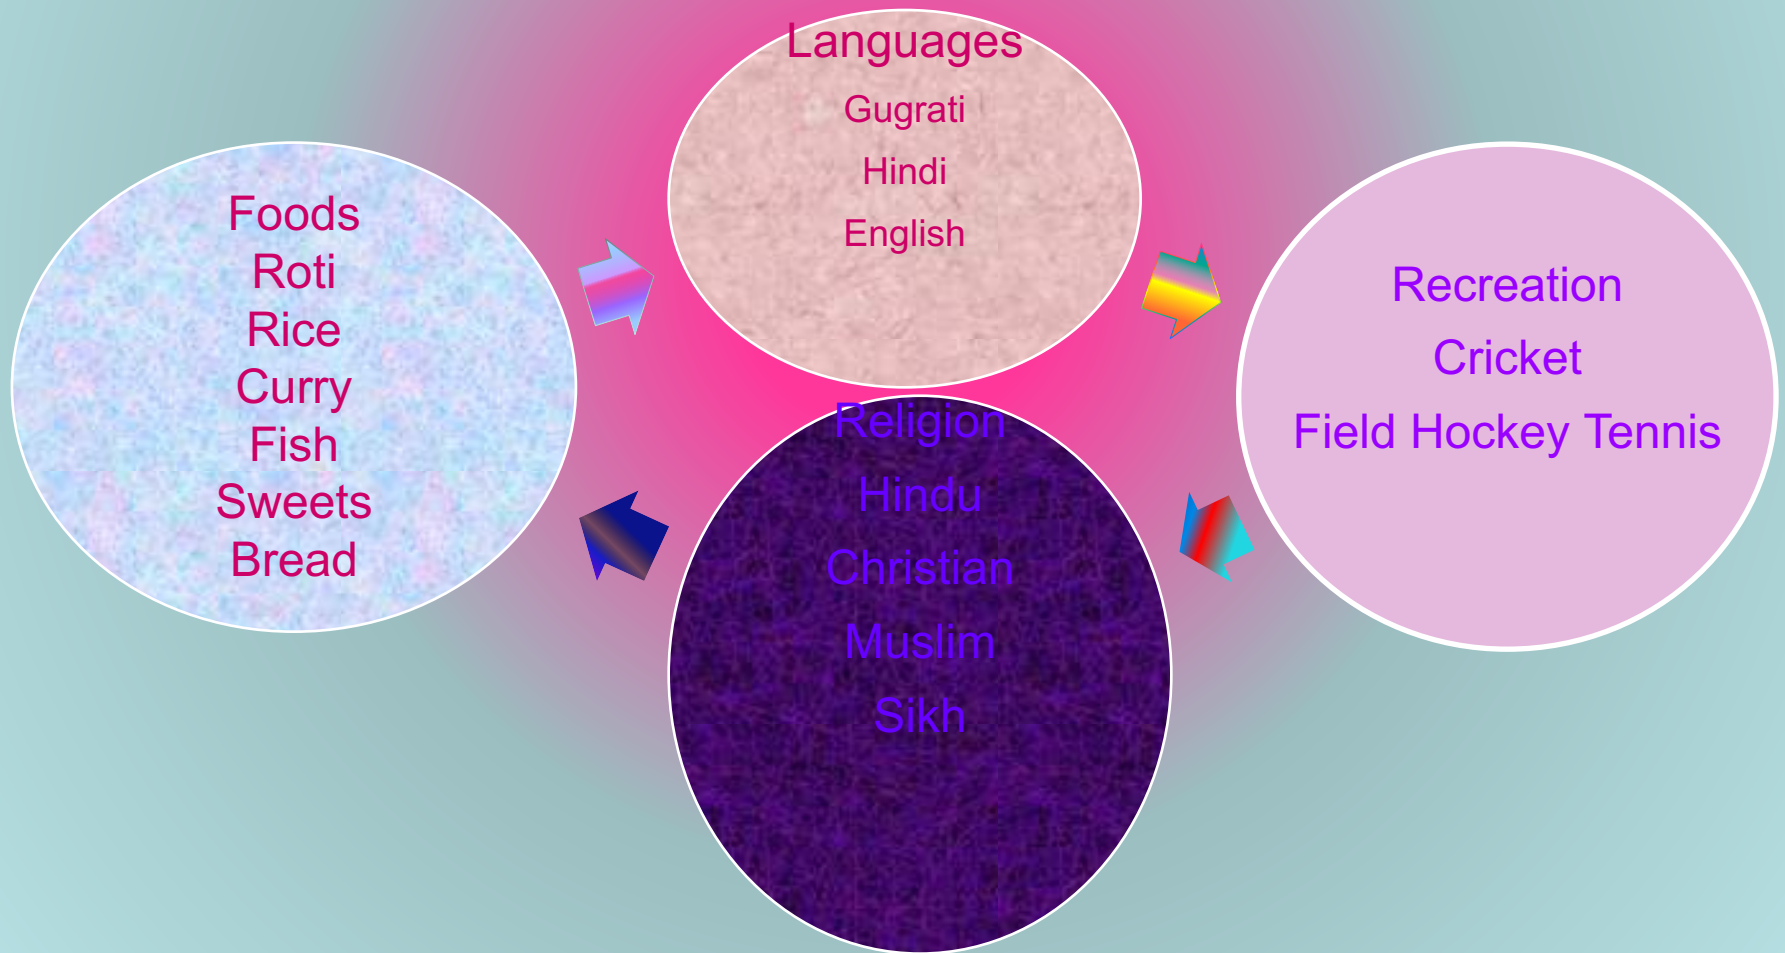

Delhi

Pune Hyderabad Mumbai Chennai Bangalore

The Indian People

The population of India is 1.2 billions people.

Holiday Traditions

Diwali in the Country of India

Diwali is a most popular festival of the India. It falls in the month of October or early November. It is the festival of lights, every house and streets it decorated with lamps and candles. It is five days festival . It is celebrated when Lord Ram return to a home after 14 years of exile . At the evening people come together and have a small party where they firecracker and enjoys the festival. I like this festival very much.

