2017 Read Across America Week at Brown

Students, staff, and community members helped promote the love of reading February 27-March 3 during the annual Read Across America Week promoted by the National Education Association.

Each day, students and staff were invited to "dress up" to promote different Dr. Seuss themed characters or books. Monday was Whoville Crazy Hair Day, Tuesday was Fox in Socks Day with wacky socks, Wednesday was Cat in the Hat Day with goofy hats, and Thursday was Oh the Places You'll Go Day when students wore their dream college shirts.

Coinciding with the anniversary of Dr. Seuss's birthday on Thursday, March 2, guest readers from the community read to all the classes throughout the morning. Readers included Mrs. Yvonne Steel (mother of our very own Mrs. Luckett and grandmother of a Brown Bullpup), Mrs. Kris Beal, and Mrs. Ruby Butler (former Brown librarian). Belhaven University athletes Mary Lichlyter, John Loris, Sean Tierney, and Vicky Vo all joined the festivities reading to fourth and fifth grade students.

Photos from the festivities are on the Brown Elementary website (www.jackson.k12.ms.us/brown) under the Library tab. Thank you to all of the students, parents, and staff who helped make the week a success by promoting the love and importance of reading!
