Welcome to my classroom! I'm glad you are here! Before I start class today, you will go on a hunt. Do the activities listed below. When finished, have a seat in your assigned seat.

Find your seat number and write it here: 	Locate your seat, but don't sit in it yet (put backpack there). Then, look at the desk at the end of your row. It has an emoji hanging on it. Draw it here and on the line at the top of this sheet--&gt;	Every day when you walk in the room, handouts will be available on the front table. Go there and pick up the handout that is there today. What is it?	Circle all that you use on a semi-regular basis:
Find someone you DO NOT know in class and play a game of Rock, Paper, Scissors. Best of 3. Then, shake hands and introduce yourself. Write their first name AND something you have in common here--&gt;	At the front of the room are Post-it Notes in a basket. Take one. Sit anywhere for a minute and write on your Post-it--print your name (that you go by) and tell me exactly how to pronounce your name (first and last). Put your Post-it on the seating chart on top of your name.	An electric stapler is located by the class trays and by the printers.
