

A Native American Alphabet

Long before you or me,
Native Americans were here,
you see.

Many tribes in many places;
different names and different faces.

A is for Adobe bricks
that made Pueblo houses.

B is for Buffalo that galloped across the plains.

C is for Canoes that drifted on silent rivers.

D is for Drum songs sung long ago.

E is for Elders who led their tribe in prayer.

F is for Feasts made up of clams and corn.

G is for Great tales told with totem poles.

H is for Hopi ovens
that baked warm bread.

I is for an Iroquois runner on the trail.

J is for Juniper berries
used to dye tan blankets.

K is for Kachina dancers
who hoped for rain.

L is for Longhouses built of logs and bark.

M is for Moccasins made of leather and beads.

N is for Navajo who herded flocks of sheep.

O is for Ornaments,
which made clothing more beautiful.

P is for Powwows
held now and then.

Q is for Quills from porcupines used for weaving.

R is for Rugs woven
on a loom.

S is for Salmon cooked
in a woven basket.

T is for Tipis made with buffalo hides.

U is for Under. The Navajo slept under hogan roofs.

V is for Venison stew made for Iroquois travelers.

W is for Wampanoag
wetus set near the coast.

X is for Xs which decorated tribal dress.

Y is for Young children who listened to stories.

Z is for Zuni Pueblo who crafted water jars.