CVMS News

Pumpkin time is upon us!

Here's What's Up!

Parent Teacher Conferences

The end of the first quarter will be on November 8th. Conferences will be on Tuesday November 8th from 4-8 PM in the Commons (Arena style). We will also have conferences on Wednesday November 9th from 12-3:30 PM and 4-8 PM in the teacher classrooms.

VFW Writing Contest

This year Mrs. Plummer's writing classes are participating in a writing contest called "The Patriot's Pen." Students will be writing a short 300-400 word essay for the local Veteran's of Foreign Wars organization; local members will read the essays and choose a couple to move on to the next round of the contest. Rounds of the contest begin at the local level, move on to a regional level, then a state level and finally a national level. Students have the potential of winning cash prizes and savings bonds up to $10,000. The question that students must answer this year is: "Are you proud of your country?" Essays will be turned in on November 1st.

Volunteer Opportunity

Parent Volunteers

If you are looking to volunteer for the school please contact Mary Reohr at: reohrm@newberg.k12.or.us. We currently have volunteer opportunities in our after school homework club, and in our classrooms.

After School Buses for Homework Club

We have a late bus that picks students up at 3:30 PM. This is for students that need to or want to stay after school for homework help. Students that ride this late bus, will need a late bus ticket from a teacher as evidence that the student stayed after to work on homework. The late bus will be available on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays. On some occasions we may require that your student stay after school and work on HW, you will be notified if this is our intention, beforehand. Otherwise this is a voluntary service. Unfortunately the bus does not go everywhere to drop students off. If you have questions about drop off locations please call our office at 503-554-4600.

What Teachers Have To Say About CVMS Students!

Ms. Gardner: Since the start of school I have noticed Frannie Knights kind heart. She is amazing with the Special Education students in her classroom. Frannie is always encouraging and lending a helping hand. She treats the special education students as peers and friends, and is a great example to her fellow classmates! Good job!

Mrs. Brower: Judas Rocha is taking a leadership role in the classroom. He helped a new student get up to speed. Nice job!

Redbird Woodley is a contentious hardworking student. He is always helpful around the classroom and very trustworthy.

Ms. Housgard: Everyday Max Mabry helps put PE equipment away. He often stays late to make sure the gym is all picked up. Great job!

Mr. Franco: A big Thank you to Cameron Allender and Dakota Hess for helping out with the baby sitting during CV's PTO meeting.

Mrs. Rice: When ChayAnn Lang saw a donut smashed on the carpet, she picked it up when no one else did. Way to go!!!

Mrs. Ceder: Brittney Jemmett is always so helpful to me. She makes sure the equipment is put away at the end of class and is very friendly and caring to her peers. Brittney is always making sure other students have a partner or gives them pointers when she sees them struggling. Nice job!

Mr. Long: Gavin Banton went above and beyond in helping to clean and organize the wood shop. Thank you!

Mrs. Oathes: I am so impressed with how hard Rene Rangel is working in science. He quickly finished his flashcards and moved right into the reading. Rene is working hard on his poster, I ap-

Magazine Drive

As of today's date our students have sold $25,232.98 in magazine orders, which equates to a total of $12,616.49 for CVMS! Thank you to all the families and kids that took the time to sell magazines and thank you to those of you who bought magazines. The money raised is very important and helps to provide supplementary materials and supplies to be used in our classrooms.
