OCTOBER 2024

SUPERINTENDENT Message

Dear Smithtown CSD Community,

I hope that all is well with you and yours. We are proud to share the latest edition of the Smithtown BULLETin with you. This is one tool of many that we have been utilizing to share information with our school community. The District Communication Committee was formed in 2021 to help evaluate district communications to ensure effective and consistent channels of information regarding school district activities. Through these communications, our goal is to keep strengthening connections with all members of the Smithtown Central School District community. It is also a lot of fun to compile a synopsis of all the great things our students and staff are doing within the district.

In addition to the BULLETin, we also use our website, social media, news media and other resources to share information with our school community. At our November 12 Board of Education meeting, Mr. Jamie Stuart and I will be providing an overview and update regarding district communications. We encourage you to either attend or watch the meeting at your leisure once the video is posted on our website. A copy of the presentation will also be available shortly after the meeting.

Sincerely,
Mark Secaur, Ed.D.

CURRICULUM CORNER

RIVER RESEARCH!

Think Discovery Science Research students from Smithtown High School East, coordinated by East Science Research Coordinator, Maria Zeitlin, recently returned to conduct citizen science along the Nissequogue River. This annual STEM activity takes a longitudinal look at the health of our local estuary.

Students worked in teams to collect data by using nets for catch and release, conducting chemical analyses, and recording physical measurements such as water and air temperatures.

POLYSACCHARIDE MADNESS!

Tenth grade students in Mr. Warner's High School West science class had tons of fun demonstrating conservation of mass through Patterns and Modeling.

Mr. Warner said, "The students were so into building the largest paper polysaccharide ever! "It really was great to see 10th graders having so much fun learning."

BASH THE TRASH!

First grade students at Accomsett Elementary are learning how to repurpose garbage from their homes into musical instruments.

This correlates with the Project Lead The Way program where students have been learning about vibrations and sounds.

Ian from the Bash The Trash agency helped teach the students about how recycling helps the environment.

MUSIC HONORS

More than 50 musicians from High School East and High School West have been selected to participate in All-State and All-County music festivals this fall and winter.

Fourteen students from East and West were selected for All-State honors as a result of their superior scores at the New York State School Music Association's solo festival and teacher recommendations.

Thirty-seven students from East and West were named All-County musicians. Selection to the All-County Festival is one of the most prestigious honors in Suffolk County for a student musician.

In addition, nine students from High School West were named All-County Jazz.

ESSAY WINNER!

High School West senior Charlotte Muratore's essay on Smithtown's role on the homefront during World War I has been chosen as the winner of the Mildred Smith Scholarship Essay Contest!

"I was extremely appreciative of this opportunity from the Smithtown Historical Society and honored to be selected as the winner," Charlotte told us.

In Charlotte's essay, she discussed the efforts of the Smithtown's Chapter of the American Red Cross as well as the National Bank of Smithtown, which collected over $316,000 to help.

Charlotte receives a $2000 scholarship as well as two free tickets to the Smithtown Historical Society's Heritage Ball this November at the Watermill Restaurant in Smithtown!

SCHOOL HERO!

Congratulations to High School West Special Education/English Teacher, Dennis Wickes Jr. on being honored by The Long Island Coalition Against Bullying for demonstrating “exceptional commitment” to creating a safe and inclusive school environment.

Mr. Wickes said he was “shocked” when he first found out, particularly because he still does not know who nominated him. “It’s cool not knowing who nominated me because it leaves the door open that it could be anyone that I had an impact on. Someone who felt safe, heard and respected in the classroom.”

Mr. Wickes is one of twenty-one Long Island educators who was recognized. He stated, “I’m humbled and appreciative that my work is being recognized. The students see I have a mutual respect for them. Their success is my success.”

CHANGE FOR A CURE

Great job by Accomsett Elementary School students for raising $1,538.43 for the nonprofit Solving Kids' Cancer.

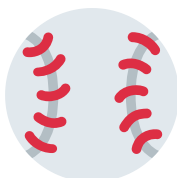

Throughout Smithtown Central School District, students and faculty members wore gold shoelaces as part of the organization's Lace Up for Kids campaign.

This is the fourth year Accomsett Elementary School Principal Tim Hellmuth has invited students to participate in “changing kids' lives” by generously donating coins. Principal Hellmuth said this year's total is the largest ever!
