

Get ahead of the numbers and into college

Take control of your college journey with these tips, tools, and resources

WELLS
FARGO

Percentage of jobs that will require a college degree:

65%
by 2020

Whether you're a first-generation college student or a legacy, prepare for tomorrow's workforce today with college-planning resources at gocollegenow.org, and watch the award-winning film First Generation.

Recovery: Job Growth and Education Requirements through 2020, Georgetown University Center for Education and the Workforce, 2013

College enrollment is expected to increase by

For tips on how to stand out from the pack, sign up for Wells Fargo's CollegeSTEPS® program at wellsfargo.com/collegesteps.

14% between 2018 and 2024

National Center for Education Statistics

National average:
$24,164
spent annually on college per family

Tuition Funding Sources can help connect you with

Visit tuitionfundingsources.com for access to more than 7 million available scholarships, and cover more college expenses.

$41
BILLION
in scholarship opportunities

How America Pays for College 2015, Sallie Mae's National Study of College Students and Parents

$150
BILLION
in federal student aid is available

Step Guide

make it yours

Demystify financial aid, and get the money you need for college in five simple steps. Go to wellsfargo.com/fivesteps.

The Guide to Federal Student Aid 2016–17

Information is accurate as of the date of printing and is subject to change without notice.
© 2016 Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. All rights reserved. EFS9435 06/16