

PECAN PARK OPEN DOORS

I am braver than I believe,

I am stronger than I seem,

And I am smarter than I think!

Note from Mrs. Carlisle: The time we have at home has given me opportunities I have not had before. With less traffic on the streets, I can hear more birds. I can cut grass whenever I like! I am spending time reading. My husband and I are watching an 11 DVD series on the history of baseball. That will keep us busy for 11 nights! I am learning much that I did not know about baseball! I hope you are doing things at home that you and your family have not had time to do before.

Our Topic: This week's activities are puzzles that will help you stretch your brain and think in different ways. There are three types – Hink Pinks, Rebuses (which we call Word Bogglers), and Riddles. The answers follow each page of puzzles in case you get stumped.

Hink Pinks: A Hink Pink is a rhyming pair of words that match a silly definition. Here are some examples:

*chubby kitty – fat cat

*cap that got squashed – flat hat

*50% giggle – half laugh

Rebuses: We call these Word Bogglers in Open Doors. If you remember, it is helpful to work with someone when trying to solve them. Two heads are better than one! Here are some examples:

FACE – red in the face

poFISHnd – big fish in a little pond

EGG EGG

HAM

green eggs and ham

TEEF

FEET

two left feet

TEEF

Riddles: Here are some sample riddles to try:

What is full of holes but still holds water?

A sponge

What question can you never answer "yes" to?

Are you asleep yet?

When things go wrong, what can you always count on?

Your fingers

What word is spelled wrong in the dictionary?

Wrong

I hope you enjoy these activities. Stay safe and watch for a new activity next week.
