

How do you feel on a scale of hamster?

One School, One Book

Creating a Culture of Literacy

“

“Reading aloud is the foundation for literacy development. It is the single most important activity for reading success.”

— Bredekamp, Copple, & Neuman, 2000.

How can we create a culture of literacy in every home?

An abstract graphic design featuring stylized letters 'LO' and 'IS' in pink, blue, and yellow, with various geometric shapes and patterns. The letters are composed of thick, rounded strokes. The 'LO' is in pink with a blue dot in the center of the 'O'. The 'IS' is in blue with a pink dot in the center of the 'S'. There are also yellow and pink vertical bars, circles, and a large blue circle at the bottom.

- Following a shared schedule, families read the selected book - a high quality full children's novel
- In the classroom, there are daily events that reinforce the reading and get everyone excited about the book with trivia, art, music, drama, and more!
- Support for kids who need it

A true school community experience!

The Importance of Emotional Engagement

...found that a one-percentage point increase in a school's average student engagement score was associated with a six-point increase in literacy achievement

How do we make this engaging?
Let's play blooket.
Jeopardy Labs and Bingo
Baker are fun, too!

Daily drawings and prizes!

A folder full of support and ideas!

May 10-28

When are we doing this?

Who wants to be a TikTok star?

...click this link to sign up for a chapter recording.

Camera shy? Use Apple Clips, Chatterpix or My Talking Pet, or iMovie apps.

Questions?

Let's do this!

Do you have any questions?

rebecca.quinn@oside.us

jena.torgersen@oside.us 