Research Paper: Outline Peer Editing Sheet

Follow these steps:

1. Your Outline must be in a Google Doc and titled like this:
AUTHOR'S NAME OUTLINE
"Jill Davis Outline"
2. Go to "File" - "Make a copy" and title the new copy like this:
AUTHOR'S NAME OUTLINE PEER EDIT
"Jill Davis Topic Proposal Peer Edit"
3. Share your Outline with another student to peer edit.
4. Your Peer Editor should highlight each of the following required elements in your outline and add a comment box with their feedback on that element; if it is not there, they should write a note at the end of the paper that reminds you to include it.

To what extent does the outline include:

- a clear statement of the first argument?
 - at least two pieces of specific evidence to back this argument?
- a clear statement of the second argument?
 - at least two pieces of specific evidence to back this argument?
- a clear statement of this third argument?

- a clearly written thesis?
- correct spelling and grammar?
- 12 pt. Times New Roman font in double-spaced text?
- 1-inch margins on all four sides?
- footnoted sources in the correct Chicago Manual of Style format?

5. Read through the comments and suggestions made by your Peer Editor.
Go back to your ORIGINAL OUTLINE and make any necessary changes.
Share both the peer edited rough draft and final copy of your Outline with me.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DEMAND THOROUGH PEER EDITING.

You will earn a 100-pt HOMEWORK grade for going through the process of seeking feedback and revising your work.

You will earn a ZERO on your Outline until a peer-edited copy has been shared with me.

If you have more than FIVE spelling/grammatical errors on your final copy you will need to make revisions - and remember - the highest grade you can earn on revised work is an 80.
