

Summer Literacy Activities for Students Entering K Grade - June

Recite ABC's to someone.	Visit the public library. Get a library card. Check out 2 books.	Practice writing his/her name using a capital letter for first letter and lower case letters on others.	Read a book with someone in your family.	Parents: Mix up uppercase letter cards. Show a card and let the child identify the letter.	Read or reread one of your library books. Who are the important characters in the book? Where does it take place?	Go for a walk with an adult. Name things you see. What letter does it begin with? tree—t; cat—c
Read a book with someone in your family.	Have your child retell his/her favorite fairy tale.	Tell someone 3 games you can play outside. Which game is your favorite? Why?	Practice writing his/her name using a capital letter for first letter and lower case letters on others.	Play "I Spy." Say, "I spy something red." Someone then tries to guess what it is.	Recite 3 nursery rhymes. Ex. "Little Boy Blue" "Humpty Dumpty"	Read a book with someone in your family.
Flag Day is June 14. Draw the American Flag. Talk about the importance of the flag.	Visit the public library. Return books and check out new books.	Match the upper case and lower case ABC's.	Play "Spot and Check." Have your child hunt for objects that begin with a particular letter.	Kitchen day: Have your child help prepare a meal. Name the things used and the beginning letter sound of each.	What kind of foods would you likely eat on a hot summer day? Tell why.	Say the following: "Six silly snakes slide slow." "Tiggy Tiger tasted tacos." Name the sounds.
Say 3 words that rhyme with -cat -hot	Tell someone 3 things that make you happy.	Parents: Mix up uppercase letter cards. Have your child identify the letters.	Parents: Show your child the letters in his/her name from letter cards. Practice spelling name with letter cards	Read a book with someone in your family.	Have your child practice saying his/her address.	Practice writing his/her name. Use letter cards to for a writing model.