

Constitution Day Resources for Parents Resources 2013

<http://constitutioncenter.org/constitution-day/>- National Constitution center- Webcasts on topics- Interactive game to channel your inner founding father *New Site

<http://new.civiced.org/resources/curriculum/constitution-day-and-citizenship-day>- Center for Civic Education- Lesson Plans for each grade level to help students learn about government, citizenship and the Constitution. Many other resources for social studies included on the site *New Site

<http://www.usconstitution.net/constkidsK.html>

Constitution for Kids — This site provides general information about the Constitution in a friendly format. Site includes links to amendments, the Constitutional Convention, and information about the founding fathers.

http://www.congressforkids.net/Constitution_delegates.htm

This site includes many topics about the Constitution and the founding fathers. It also includes information about the three branches of government, checks and balances, amendments, etc.

<http://bensguide.gpo.gov/>

Child-friendly site has lots of great information about Constitution Day and government and supports many topics in our Social Studies Curriculum.

<http://www.constitutionday.cc/>

Constitution Day site with interesting links on the founding fathers, Declaration of Independence, Articles of Confederation and more. Two links are listed below:

<http://www.constitutionfacts.com/?page=quiz.cfm>

Interactive Constitution quiz

<http://www.constitutionfacts.com/?section=funZone&page=crosswordPuzzles.cfm>

Constitution crossword puzzles