

Nandua Middle School Title I Parent-School Compact 2024-2025

Teachers, staff, and administrators at Nandua Middle agree to assume the following responsibilities:

- To provide reasonable parental access to administrators, teachers, and other staff members
- To provide reasonable access to curriculum, materials, and scheduled conferences
- To provide a safe and orderly learning environment
- To provide assistance and/or resources that will enable parents to assist in the academic success of their children
- To provide Title I parental events
- To provide a comment in Power School for students with a D or F
- To communicate student progress and/or student concerns
- To show genuine concern for the welfare and academic progress of our students

Parent and/or caregiver, assume the following responsibilities for my child's academic growth:

- Ensure that my child attends school on time with minimum absences and notify the guidance office and/or homeroom teacher of such absences
  - Advise the guidance office of any temporary and/or permanent situations that might impact my child's academic success and keep the school guidance office and my child's teachers informed of my current phone number, email address, and mailing address
- Review the events of school with my child daily, ensure homework completion, check to ensure that I have signed any required papers, and ensure that my child has the needed materials
- Immediately review progress reports and report cards with my child and communicate any academic concerns with my child's teacher
- Review the Accomack County School Calendar, the Nandua Middle School Handbook, and the Nandua Middle School website to be aware of essential information
- Review all school, classroom, cafeteria, and bus rules with my child
- Communicate often to my child about the importance of respect for self, others, and property
- Encourage my child to participate in the Nandua Middle School At-Home Reading Program and promote reading outside of school on a daily basis

As a student, I seriously agree to assume the following responsibilities:

- Attend school regularly and on time with minimum absences
- Keep my materials organized and complete all of my classwork, homework, and/or projects
- Contribute to class discussion by being an active learner and having all of my needed materials
- Take all forms of school related communications to my parents/caregivers and promptly return those requiring a signature back to my teacher
- Know the rules for the classroom, hallway, cafeteria, outside areas, and bus
- Support my school by showing pride and respect for self, others, and property and know that learning is essential to my future
- Participate in the Nandua Middle School At-Home Reading Program and read daily
