

STATION #2

Direct and Indirect Objects/Predicate Nouns and Adjectives

Joanna gave the hungry child her sandwich.

1. DO:    —    —    —    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —

Reagan is an excellent square dancer.

2. PN:    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —    —    —

Wyatt's dog can be extremely nosy.

3. PA:    —    —    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —

Pass SKate the ball; she's open!

4. IO:    —    —    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —

Seth will bring his homework to school on time..

5. DO:    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —    —    —

Without a doubt, the best thumb wrestler in the class is Gavin.

6. PN:    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —    —    —    —

Eli gave his cousin, whom Eli worried was lying to him, the benefit of the doubt yesterday.

7. IO:    —    ( — )    —    —    —    —    —    —    —    —

Does this sentence have a PN, PA, or DO?

Steph's collection of Fortnite skins is larger than Leah's.

8.        PN: ?            PA: !            DO: ~

****

— — — — —

STATION #3 » ACTIVE OR PASSIVE

Directions: Which treasure chest holds the treasure? You'll need to follow the path to find out. Read the top sentence, decide whether that sentence is active or passive. Then follow your answer to your next sentence. Repeat until you reach a treasure box. If Active, follow A, if Passive, follow P.

The valiant firefighter was awarded a medal for his bravery at the Town Hall meeting.

Taking her time, Lucy slowly finished her test.

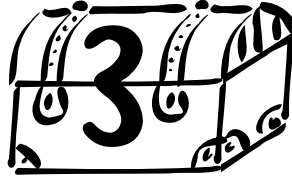

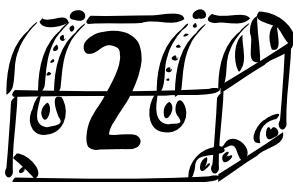

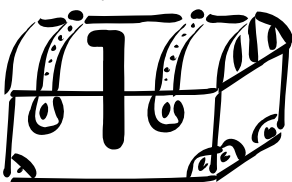

My best friend was late as usual to our hangout.

The Words of the Lord were spoken by the prophet Isaiah.

Taken by zombies, the man knew that he would not be alive much longer.

Though he tried to cut to go first, Gabe was made to go to the back of the line by his teacher.

SWITCH THE PASSIVE SENTENCE YOU HIT ALONG YOUR PATH TO ACTIVE VOICE TO UNLOCK YOUR CHEST.

