

Splendiferous
(adj)

Hawaii (places), people, landscapes, Northern lights, Magnificent, wonderful, fine, really beautiful actors. The view from the balcony was splendiferous.

Acclaim
(verb)

Fast/furious, pride, finite franchise, awards, victory, growth, awards. To praise strongly or applaud loudly. ① VR headsets. Elon Musk has acclaimed that his vehicles are the future.

imperative
(adj)

video gaming, homework, hobbies, eat, basic needs, purchases, sales, vaccines, pets, important, needing to be done ASAP. It's imperative to put your first and last name on your papers if you want a grade.

Placate
(verb)

money, melatonin, drugs, treats, favors, promises, incentives, punishments. To stop from being angry; to calm (brave) pacifiers occasionally placate babies. gifts,

-ing
-al

Dwindle
(verb)

armies, ice cubes, size, soldiers, ignorant, food supply, weather, population. To become (or grow) smaller in amount or number. The fire dwindled after firefighters doused it with water. fires

incredulous
(adj)

questionable, bragging rights, siblings, true crime, actions, sports, Doubtful; skeptical presidential nominees. The world was incredulous about the Holocaust until the 1940s.

adv-ly

preposterous

Mel had an incredible expression when she heard her name announced as the winner.

Admonish
(verb)

The coach admonished me for missing practice.

Peril
(noun)

The world witnessed the peril of 9/11. Buck takes a perilous journey in COTW. wild

adj-ous

Occasionally
(adv)

Occasionally we get to sit with our friends at lunch. natural storms, robberies, disasters, mayhem, robberies, shootings, holidays, US wars.

Resent
(verb)

Humans often resent those who treat them poorly.

adj-ful

noun-ment