JUST BECAUSE YOU NEED TO KEEP YOUR DISTANCE FROM OTHERS AND STAY NEAR HOME DOESN'T MEAN YOU CAN'T MAKE GREAT INSPIRING ART! THE EXTRA TIME IS A BLESSING. USE THESE CARDS TO GET INSPIRED WHILE HOME FROM SCHOOL.

Take out your junk drawer, and create a photograph inspired by what you find.

Go to your basement. Use items you find to set up a scene (like a movie set). Take photos of yourself or others interacting with the space. NOTE: BE SURE TO LIGHT YOUR SCENE!

Find 20 objects in your house that have the same shape -or- color. Create a photograph inspired by what you find.

Create fashion designs out of non-clothing items in your house. Set up a fashion shoot to capture your unique outfits and accessories.

Build a fort in your house and take photos with yourself or others interacting with it.

Compose 1 photo in every room of your house. Pick a different emotion for each room. Use lighting, color, object placement, and models to tell different stories.

Take photos of your breakfast, lunch and dinner, trying to make them look as visually appealing or interesting as possible.

Use your back yard to create a strange, scary or mysterious scene. Show just enough to get people thinking, leaving a lot of unanswered questions.

Throw a party with your family and capture the fun in a series of photographs.

Take series of pictures showing areas that are usually busy with little activity -or- depicting isolation.

Invent a character for yourself and try to capture self portraits that showcase that character's personality.

Choose a few objects and create photographs that could be used to advertise those items. Play with lighting and including other elements to add interest.

Use a photo editing program like photoshop to edit an unexpected element into a picture of one of the rooms of your house.

Use items in your house to create the illusion of an activity that you normally do outside.

Do a photo series using your families car as the setting for your photographs.

Use your face as a canvas and create sculptures using everyday material on your face.
