Center Grove to Showcase Talents of Visual, Media, and Performing Arts Students in May

Greenwood, IN (April 25, 2016) – Center Grove will feature music and art from talented students in all eight schools in May. The annual Festival of the Arts will be held in conjunction with the Show Choir Spring Spectacular, and Spring Band Concert. Center Grove High School's Student Government will also host Food Truck and Movie Night to benefit Riley Hospital for Children.

This year's Festival of the Arts will include more than 3,000 pieces of art, consisting of acrylic, water & oil painting, ceramics, photography, pencil, pen & ink drawings and much more, from the elementary schools, middle schools and high school. This exhibit is free and open to the public. This display is held in the Center Grove High School (CGHS) Hall of Excellence. All visitors should go to Hall of Excellence doors (east side of the building) to gain entry to the display. All other doors at the high school will remain locked during this event. No tickets are required.

Art festival viewing times are as follows:
