GREENWOOD, IN (February 4, 2014)—Center Grove High School (CGHS) continued its tradition of excellence in art at the annual Scholastic Art Competition where it received 58 awards.

Nearly half of the art submitted by CGHS students received various recognitions of merit by the panel of judges. CGHS received 18 Gold Key Awards which qualifies the winner for national competition. Center Grove also received 19 Silver Key Awards. Twenty-one works of art received Honorable Mention Award recognition. The Gold and Silver Key art will be on display at Clowes Hall on the Butler campus from Tuesday, February 18th through Sunday, March 9. Butler University is hosting the competition for the fifth year.
