

Press Release:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Riverview Students Compete in National History Day State Finals

On May 12th and 13th, 18 Riverview students competed in the National History Day State Finals at Carlisle Area High School in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The students presented their projects well in the face of very difficult questions from judges looking for a wide range of research and projects that directly relate to the theme of Taking a Stand in History. The students competing in the state finals included Celaine Hornsby, Summer Girson, Megan Dell, Grace Ison, Rachel Aber, Leah Ford, Ethan Snyder, Christoph Hudack, Luke Spinola, Jocelyn Messia, Victoria Zerbach, Maya Watters, Maura Hill, Gillian Gaynor, Marina Pietz, Jack Harden, Ian Burton, and Nick O'Toole.

Two Riverview groups finished in the top 10 in the state of Pennsylvania.

A group performance by Grace Ison, Rachel Aber, and Leah Ford entitled "The Lowell Mill Girls: Taking a Stand Against Unjust Working Conditions and Igniting a Revolution" finished 6th place in the state.

An exhibit by Gillian Gaynor and Marina Pietz entitled "How the Horrors of Hate Led to the Evolution of Ethics" finished 6th place in the state.

Congratulations to all participants!

Academics. Arts. Athletics. Opportunities.

SERIOUS SUCCESS
RIVERVIEW SCHOOL DISTRICT