

Dia de los Muertos : Proyecto Descripción

Due Date: Last Week Oct. : _____

This Project can take many forms. You can bake, cook, sing a song, do a dance, create a visual art project, develop a game, construct a diorama, construct an altar for someone, write a story or a poem, create a power point etc....Whatever project you choose needs to be okayed by your teacher, have a Spanish component, and reflect the culture/customs of the holiday. The self reflection is an important component of the projectdo not dismiss it.

Rubrica:

	1	2	3	4	5
Cultural Relevance Knowledge (English)	very little	some	can relate 3	can relate 4	gives detail
Effort (Visual /Taste/ Creativity)	very little	some	good effort	very good	exceeds expectations
Language (Spanish) Notecard/Poster (grammar)	very poor	poor	good	very good	exceptional
Language (Spanish) (pronunciation)	very poor	poor	good	very good	exceptional
Promptness	4 days late	3 days late	2 days late	1 day late	early/on time

Total _____ x 3 = _____

Project Reflection: (If working with a partner both people need to write a reflection and they shouldn't be the same) 25 pts.

1. Did you enjoy doing the project? (Why/Why Not)
2. What did you find challenging about this project?
3. Do you have any celebrations that are the same/similar to Day of the Dead in your culture?
4. What are 2 historical facts about this holiday and 3 symbols/meaning?
5. How does the country you chose to research this year celebrate/deal with death?
6. What do you like/ don't like about this holiday?