

ir + a + infinitive

¡Me gusta la clase de español!

When you talk about things you are planning to do in the future, you say what you are going to do.

To talk about activities you are going to do, use the formula:

ir + a + infinitive

Here's some examples of this formula used in English:

- I am going to study.
- We are going to talk.

Primero, vamos a conjugar el verbo “ir”. Ir means to go.

Yo	voy	Nosotros(as)	vamos
tú	vas	vosotros
Él, ella, Ud.	va	Ustedes, ellos, ellas	van

Remember! An infinitive is a verb that ends in -ar, -er, or -ir. You don't have to conjugate them for this formula!

1. I am going to eat.

Yo voy a comer.

2. Eric is going to drink.

Eric va a beber.

3. Olivia and Antonio are going to play sports.

Olivia y Antonio (Ellos/Uds.) van a jugar deportes.

4. Mario and I are going to turn.

Mario y yo vamos a doblar.

5. We are going to review.

Nosotros vamos a repasar.
