

RACTC Directors Report

October 7, 2015

Wayne Olson, Director

1. Attended 2 High Tech Equipment workshops
 - Graphic Production
 - 3-D Printer
2. Completed DPI Fall Reports
3. Completed CTE Fall Reports
4. Served as a judge for the FFA District Leadership event in Dickinson
5. Attended the SkillsUSA Fall Conference in Mandan
6. Made a classroom observation of Health Sciences Instructor Bobbie Johnson at Dickinson High School
7. Made school visits to New Salem, Dickinson and Hebron

RACTC Student Organizations and Results

FFA Range Judging

Congratulations to the Hebron FFA chapter and advisor Riston Zilke for winning the State FFA Range Judging Contest. Team members are: Ryan Woroniecki, Morgan Krizan, Braxton Rolle, Carson Woroniecki, and Kiana Schatz. Congratulations to all RACTC FFA programs that participated. Results were:

Teams

Hebron – Gold- State Champions

New England – Gold

Scranton – Silver

Dickinson – Silver

FFA District Leadership

District 7 - 1st and 2nd place finishers

Parli Procedure – Hebron – 2nd Place

District 8 – 1st and 2nd place finishers

Quiz Contest – Belfield (2nd place)

Freshman Quiz – Scranton (2nd place)

Extemp Public Speaking – Skylar Dockter, Dickinson (1st place), Codi Schaper, Killdeer (2nd place)

Prepared Public Speaking – Emily Ehlis, New England (2nd place)

Creed Contest – Eve Stegner, New England (2nd place)

Job Interview – Tanner Sanford, Scranton (1st place), Lillian McFadden, Killdeer (2nd place)

Parli Procedure – Killdeer (1st place), New England (2nd place)

Demonstration – Dickinson (1st place), New England (2nd place)

USASkills Fall Conference

Mrs. Bobbie Johnson and three members from the Dickinson SkillsUSA chapter attended the SkillsUSA Fall Conference in Mandan on October 5th. The students networked with other members from across the state, learned about SkillsUSA contests, programs and opportunities, and participated in leadership workshops.