

Name: _____

Name: _____

Part I: Finish Line, pg 1-60 Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).	Part I: Finish Line, pg 1-60 Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).
Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).	Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).
Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Then answer your question with evidence.	Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Then answer your question with evidence.

Name: _____

Name: _____

Part II: Headwind, pg 61-120	Part II: Headwind, pg 61-120
--	--

Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).	Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).
Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).	Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).
Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Then answer your question with evidence.	Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Then answer your question with evidence.

Name: _____

Name: _____

Part III: Straightaway, pg 121-206	Part III: Straightaway, pg 121-206
Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).	Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).

Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines that you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).		Golden Lines: Record a min of 2 lines you love, lines that you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).
Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Answer your question with evidence .		Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Why...? Answer your question with evidence .

Name: _____

Name: _____

Part IV: Adjusting the Blocks pg 207-274		Part IV: Adjusting the Blocks pg 207-274
Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).		Summary: Record what you think are the 3 most important events from this section with (page #).

Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines that you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).		Golden Lines: Record a min. of 2 lines you love, lines that you want to discuss, or lines that seem important to the story in some way. Remember your (page #).
Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Then answer your question with evidence (page #).		Evaluative Question & Your Answer: Write a question that requires the reader to formulate a response based on their opinion. Then answer your question with evidence (page #).