

Red Riding Hood story adds to lesson on the five senses at JCCE

In the media center at John C. Calhoun Elementary School Mrs. Wells' students acted out the story of Red Riding Hood to reinforce a unit on the five senses. "What big eyes you have! What big ears you have!" Students learned about how the different senses were all a part of this classic fairy tale. Pictured are: Jacob McCurry (the Wolf) and Cle' Ajah Lewis (Red Riding Hood)
