When an employee completes the probationary period he/she will be entered on the seniority list and the seniority date shall be established as one hundred eighty (180) calendar days prior to the date of completion of the probationary period.
- B. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees. No employee shall bring his/her seniority from a previous occupation within or outside of the school district.

- D. Where more than one employee begins employment on the same date, seniority shall be determined by a drawing to be held among those employees at the completion of the probationary period. The drawing shall be held at the Employer's personnel office at a date and time agreed upon by the Employer and the Association. Those employees and representatives of the Employer and Association shall be present and each employee, in alphabetical order by last name, shall draw a number to determine his/her seniority ranking in relation to one another.

- F. An employee shall lose all seniority by resignation, retirement, discharge, quit or abandonment.

- G. Seniority rights shall be within classification. Job classifications are separate. Seniority, layoff and recall shall not be transferable except in the event a Behavioral Specialist does not complete the required training/education required, the employee will be moved back to the Educational Assistants' seniority list.

ARTICLE 4: ASSIGNMENTS AND TRANSFERS

- C. All vacancies shall be posted in a conspicuous place in each building of the district for a period of ten (10) workdays.

- I. Normally, substitutes may be used for not more than thirty (30) days in vacant positions. In such circumstances where administration feels it is in the best interest of the district to retain a substitute for any period greater than thirty (30) days, the administration will discuss these circumstances with the association in an effort to come to a mutually agreeable conclusion.
- J. The names of individuals who fill vacancies within the bargaining unit will be communicated to the bargaining unit president within ten (10) working days of hiring date.
- K. Whenever a bargaining unit member substitutes for a certified teacher(s), he/she shall be compensated at a rate of $6.00 (six dollars) per hour above his/her current hourly rate for such time. The above rate will be prorated based on the number of class periods worked, with a seven (7) class period per day. (See Memorandum of Agreement regarding Clarification of Article IV, Section K.)

ARTICLE 5: LAYOFF AND RECALL

- A. When the Employer decides to reduce the number of employees in full-time positions, full-time employees shall be reduced in reverse order of seniority in the full-time classification, provided there is a more senior full-time employee available who can perform all the duties of the remaining full-time positions. Upon request, employees reduced from full-time positions shall be retained in remaining part-time positions provided they are more senior than the part-time employee and can perform all the duties of the remaining part-time positions. When the Employer decides to reduce the number of employees in part-time positions, part-time employees shall be reduced in reverse order of seniority in the part-time classification, provided there is a more senior employee available who can perform all the duties of the remaining part-time positions. If no full-time employee accepts recall, then part-time employees will be recalled in order of seniority, provided the employees can perform all the duties of the available position.
- D. The employer shall maintain a reduced employee on the recall list for a period not to exceed two (2) years. Employees must advise the Employer of any change in address. - F. Behavioral Specialists and Educational Assistants shall be subject to layoff and recall consistent with the separate job classification seniority lists.

ARTICLE 6: EVALUATION

- A. All employees shall be evaluated by the appropriate administrator with input from the certified teacher that the employee is assigned to or the program administrator for Behavioral Specialists. The employee shall be given an opportunity to discuss the report in private with the program director prior to entry into his/her personnel file.

If 24-hour notice is not given, then the building administrator can assign an RUEAA employee. An additional "Emergency List" will be developed at the same time designating employee's who are available on immediate notice.

- B. Employees will work with their supervisor or supervisors to establish appropriate breaks (which will consist of two fifteen (15) minute duty free, uninterrupted paid periods) and a thirty (30) minute duty free, uninterrupted lunch period. Leave days are not for the purpose of vacation. Use of more than three consecutive days shall not be attached to a holiday break and may require a doctor's excuse if administration suspects abuse. Leave days used the day before or day after a holiday break shall be without compensation, except in the case of illness or emergency.

In order to qualify, the employee must satisfy medical standards and provide documentation prior to September 1 that he/she has successfully participated in a medically supervised wellness program that addresses the listed below categories:

- Blood pressure
- Smoking

- L. All benefits hereunder are subject to the terms and conditions of the insurance policies and any claims shall be made against the insurance carrier. The employee must comply with all requirements for coverage specified by the insurance carrier, including those for enrollment and active employment. The employee must, within thirty (30) days of the change, notify the Employer of any change in marital status and/or number or age of dependents, which would result in an adjustment of premiums paid by the Employer for insurance coverage.

Any failure to so notify the Employer shall make the employee liable for any over-payment of premiums attributable thereto.

Said notice shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested signed by addressee and shall provide the employee ten (10) workdays for compliance. It shall further advise the employee that a request for direct deduction from his/her wages may be filed with the Board in the event he/she does not comply within the time period.
