Superintendent Report:

Book study will start with Culturize for staff, students and Board members. We will do one Chapter a week. There will be discussion after each Chapter with staff.

Staff received their first Covid vaccination on the 9th.

Winterfest was the week of the Feb 1st thru February 5th. Parent teachers' conferences are tomorrow – February 10th.

On the 19th, Superintendent and Ms Shirkey will take the Juniors and Seniors to the State Capital to the Legislature.

High School Principal:

We have 8 students who are continuing with distant learning. Brave's Brew is now making a profit. APEX Learning is proving to be effective for our students. Five students have earned credit back in six weeks. Two Seniors have recovered a credit and are on course to graduate.

We have a student who was selected to be on Superintendent Baesler's 2020-2022 Student Cabinet. This student was also on the 2016-2018 Student Cabinet.

Close-Up will be the 1st week in May. Honor Society students will be allowed to go on the trip.

Athletic Director:

Mel was asking to open the Head Track coaching position for the School year. The season starts March 1st. The Head coach can determine how many assistants are needed based on the number of students who participate.
