Superintendent Report:

We have 1 Pay Application left to receive from Three Affiliated for the Track project. The jackets will be done on the 15th. These are not paid for with tax payer money. They are paid for with pop machine sales and donations.

The Professional Development day for teachers will be on December 18th.

The District Newsletter is included in your packet.

High School Principal:

We had a Saturday school where 60 students showed up either online or in person. We are working on a credit buy back with Power Hour attendance. There was a decrease in attendance around Thanksgiving. We will have Honor Society induction in the spring. High School and Junior High have started their Book Clubs. ASVAB Testing was on November 17th.

We received a card with a $100 donation to the Senior Class from a woman from Portland, Oregon, who had read an article in the New York Times about our Senior student who passed away.

Elementary Principal:

Enrollment is 154. Teacher evaluations are almost complete. Targeted Support grant has been submitted. We will be doing AimsWeb testing when we come back after the new year.
