

Rubric: Blog Response

One response per quarter (for each class) is required. You may respond to as many blog posts as you wish, but turn in a rubric only for the one response for which you would like to receive the grade. Take your time and work thoughtfully.

Student: _____

Period: _____

Blog topic: _____ Date completed: _____

| (teacher use only) | 5 (excellent) | 4 (good) | 3 (average) | 2 (needs improvement) | 1 (weak) |
|--------------------------------|------------------|-------------|----------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| Paragraph structure | | | | | |
| Spelling/grammar | | | | | |
| Punctuation/capitalization | | | | | |
| Length (150-300 words) | | | | | |
| Overall quality of response | | | | | |

Total score (25 possible): _____

Rubric: Blog Response

One response per quarter (for each class) is required. You may respond to as many blog posts as you wish, but turn in a rubric only for the one response for which you would like to receive the grade. Take your time and work thoughtfully.

Student: _____

Period: _____

Blog topic: _____ Date completed: _____

| (teacher use only) | 5 (excellent) | 4 (good) | 3 (average) | 2 (needs improvement) | 1 (weak) |
|--------------------------------|------------------|-------------|----------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| Paragraph structure | | | | | |
| Spelling/grammar | | | | | |
| Punctuation/capitalization | | | | | |
| Length (150-300 words) | | | | | |
| Overall quality of response | | | | | |

Total score (25 possible): _____