

Scarsdale Adult School

Back to School is not just for your child!

The Scarsdale Adult School is opening doors to learning, offering enrichment curriculum for lifelong learners. Peruse the entire Fall/Winter 2011 Course Catalog, register on-line today, or make a tax deductible contribution at www.ScarsdaleAdultSchool.org.

Day and evening courses are given throughout the semester with over 225 choices of intellectually stimulating, recreational, and skill-enhancing courses, lectures and trips. Subjects range from literature, history, film, music and art to computer use, photography, crafts, fitness, health and wellness, cooking, baking, dance, languages, bridge and nature.

Plan a Girls' and/or Boys' Nights Out:

- Let's Play Mah Jongg: Beginner Series
- Let's Play Canasta: Beginner Series
- Guitar for Beginners
- Sugar Detox
- History of Rock: The Early Years
- Are You Ready for Some Football?: A Cultural and Historical Retrospective
- Poker 101

Additional highlighted courses include:

- Computer courses such as Website Design, Learn to Blog and In Design
- Returning popular cooking/baking instructors such as America Gonzalez, Mimi Beaven, Suzanne Yearley, and Seth Greenberg
- Gardening and composting at the Scarsdale High School with Russell Greenleaf
- Financial planning classes concerning estate tax, long-term care, and special needs trusts
- Fitness, yoga, Tai Chi, dance, and golf courses
- Health and wellness classes with Anne Van Der Voort and Stephanie Filardi, among other popular teachers
- Workshops for women led by Michelle Friedman, CPCC
- Many courses in history, fine arts, literature, and music taught by distinguished faculty from Princeton, NYU, Sarah Lawrence College, SUNY, CUNY, and Manhattanville College, among other fine educational institutions