

Willard and Doris Schwartz Memorial Scholarship

Willard and Doris were the proud parents of 9 children. Their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were and are involved in many sports and extracurricular events throughout their school years. Willard and Doris took great pleasure in following their families over the years supporting them. These events often led into many good times and animated discussions. Willard and Doris truly loved the family atmosphere that these events created; the dedication, and the unwavering commitment one puts forth when signing up for the challenge. This scholarship is being awarded to a senior individual(s) who best fulfills their beliefs.
