

Science Magazine Subscriptions at BHS:

The Top 15 Science Resources on the Web:

<http://www.ebizmba.com/articles/science-websites>

Live Science <http://www.livescience.com/>

A Science News Website Using Stories from Major News Outlets

Discover Magazine <http://discovermagazine.com/>

#1 Most Popular Science Magazine on the Web

Science Daily <http://www.sciencedaily.com>

Science News featuring Research from Universities, Journals & other Organizations

~~~~~

Use Google News to search up to the minute news stories from over 4,500 news sites around the world over the past 30 days: <http://www.news.google.com>

Databases!

Marvel! A collection of dozens of databases giving full-text access to magazines and newspaper articles. It would cost $700,000 to purchase all of these databases!

<http://libraries.maine.edu/mainedatabases/>

Search over 3,000
reference ebooks!

Search over 250 science reference sets and millions of scientific journal articles!

Databases also give you much more accurate information than websites.

<http://www.brunswick.k12.me.us/bhslibrary/databases-and-online-resources-2/>

Cite your Science Sources!

While Easybib is the most popular online citation generator, it is not free when creating citations in the APA format used in science. Use Citation Machine instead!

<http://www.citationmachine.net/apa/cite-a-book>