

Petersburg City Public Schools Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC)

About Us

Committee members ensure that the local school division addresses the needs in the education of children with disabilities.

Work hand-in-hand with the school division in the development of priorities and strategies concerning children with disabilities.

Whom We Serve:

The SEAC is designed to be a resource for persons with disabilities, parents/guardians of persons with disabilities, teachers, stakeholders, community members, agencies and other committees concerned with the education and training of students with disabilities.

Our Services

Assist the local school division in interpreting plans to the community for meeting the needs of children with disabilities for educational services.

Review policies and procedures, renew special education resources and related services prior to submission to the local school board, as well as participate in the review of the local school division's annual plan to allocate money for additional resources.

Are You Concerned About Your Child's Development?

Child Find Is In Progress:

Identifying children with disabilities and providing resources to ensure your Child's success.

SEAC NEEDS YOU... Let Your Voice Be Heard

Join The Committee To Positively Impact The Lives Of Children With Disabilities!

Did You Know...

478 students in the local area have disabilities.

110 students qualify for special transportation.

You... Yes, you can make a difference in the lives of children with disabilities.
