

I. Sort each word according to its part of speech (POS)

Adjectives
Nouns
Adverbs
Verbs

II. Vocab words used in context.

- a. _____, students go on vacation during school.
- b. Teachers need to _____ good behavior more often.
- c. To some, aliens are both preposterous and _____.
- d. Food, shelter, and water are _____ to life.
- e. Extra credit tends to _____ those who want to raise their grades.
- f. Ms. JJ _____ us when mint trash is left behind.
- g. Natural disasters can cause immense _____.
- h. Vacations leave us feeling _____.
- i. The rain _____ with each passing hour.
- j. Americans either love or _____ each President.

Vocabulary List #3

Lynx

Quiz: _____

Splendiferous
(adj) Magnificent, wonderful, fine,
The view from the balcony was splendiferous.

Acclaim
(verb) To praise strongly or applaud loudly.
Elon Musk has acclaimed that his vehicles are the future.

imperative
(adj) Important, needing to be done ASAP
It's imperative to put your first and last name on your papers if you want a grade.

Placate
(verb) To stop from being angry; to calm
Pacifiers occasionally placate babies.

Dwindle
(Verb) To become (or grow) smaller in amount or number.
The fire dwindled after firefighters doused it with water.

incredulous
(adj) Doubtful; skeptical
The world was incredulous about the Holocaust until the 1940s.

Mel had an incredulous expression when she heard her name announced as the winner.

Admonish
(verb) To criticize gently.
The coach admonished me for missing practice.

Peril
(noun) Serious, immediate danger
The world witnessed the peril of 9/11.
Buck takes a perilous journey in COTW.

Occasionally
(adv) Sometimes, not frequent, every once in a while
Occasionally we get to sit with our friends at lunch.

Resent
(verb) Feeling of extreme hatred or bitterness
Humans often resent those who treat them poorly.