

Tuesday/ day 1- Essential Question: Why are courts an important part of our government? Objective: students will learn new vocab and practice using vocab, practice making long vowels sounds and determining if long vowel is being used in a word, will learn what the simple subject of a sentence is and practice locating it in a sentence, students will practice where to separate words into syllables, students will learn how to use the VCe pattern to decode words they don't know, students will practice spelling words for the week, read, make inferences, draw conclusions, and write about plot and conflict within a story

- Introduce vocab-T110 & T120/fill in vocab book
- Phonics-long vowels a, e, i, o, u-T108 & T109 /Reader's Notebook(RN) P15
- Grammar-Kinds of sentences: statement (declarative) & questions (interrogative) T126/RN 16
- Spelling- Pretest with words T126
- Reading- Read aloud T50-T69 The Trial of Cardigan Jones
- Writing-genre-fantasy/Inferring/Predicting/Drawing Conclusions

Wednesday- day 2 Essential Question: Why are courts an important part of our government? Objective: students will learn new vocab and practice using vocab, practice making long vowels sounds and determining if long vowel is being used in a word, will learn what the simple subject of a sentence is and practice locating it in a sentence, students will practice where to separate words into syllables, students will learn how to use the VCe pattern to decode words they don't know, students will practice spelling words for the week, read, make inferences, draw conclusions, and write about plot and conflict within a story

- Vocab- vocabulary matching game
- Phonics-Long vowel picture match up T129
- Grammar-Kinds of sentences: commands and exclamations T134/RN P17
- Spelling-VCe spelling words, rainbow write
- Reading- The Trial of Cardigan Jones aloud T50-T69
- Writing- after reading, have students complete Turn & Talk on T132(student book P72 &73), have students record answers 1-3 in writing journal

Thursday –Day 3 Essential Question: Why are courts an important part of our government? Objective: students will learn new vocab and practice using vocab, practice making long vowels sounds and determining if long vowel is being used in a word, will learn what the simple subject of a sentence is and practice locating it in a sentence, students will practice where to separate words into syllables, students will learn how to use the VCe pattern to decode words they don't know, students will review different kinds of sentences: command, statement, question, exclamatory; students will practice spelling words for the week, read, make inferences, draw conclusions, and write about plot and conflict within a story

- Vocab-building vocab words with letter tiles/Making connections to life Q's T142
- Phonics-practice dividing words into syllables T137, review sound-spelling cards VCe words, Word sort list on PT138
- Grammar-review kinds of sentences: command, statement, question, exclamatory RN P23
- Spelling-spelling stamp it!
- Reading-IP Reread The Trial of Cardigan Jones T50-T69

- Writing- complete RN 21 &22 after reading

Friday Day 4 - Essential Question: Why are courts an important part of our government? Objective: students will learn new vocab and practice using vocab, practice making long vowels sounds and determining if long vowel is being used in a word, will learn what the simple subject of a sentence is and practice locating it in a sentence, students will practice where to separate words into syllables, students will learn how to use the VCe pattern to decode words they don't know, students will review different kinds of sentences: command, statement, question, exclamatory; students will practice spelling words for the week, read, make inferences, draw conclusions, and write about plot and conflict within a story

- Vocab-crossword/vocab strategies-glossary & dictionary T150 & RN P25
- Grammar-review subjects and predicates: simple subject and simple predicate T152 / RN P26
- Spelling-Build it tiles! spelling words/proofread for spelling RN P27
- Reading-Informational "You be the Jury" P74-75
- Writing-What is the conflict in the story and what is the plot in The Trial of Cardigan Jones? Have students record answers in writing journals