

Elk Meadow Elementary Site Council
Elections for 2016-2017

Current and incoming parents are encouraged to consider serving on the Elk Meadow Elementary Site Council. Site Councils are established by Oregon state law and members include parents, teachers, the principal, and other school staff. Each member serves a 3-year term, renewable. Site Council meets five Wednesdays throughout the school year, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m., to discuss issues involving school improvement and school community issues. Among Site Council's responsibilities are reviewing instructional programs, monitoring the school improvement plan, developing plans to provide professional growth opportunities for the school's staff, and administering grant funds.

If you are interested in serving on Elk Meadow's Site Council, complete the interest statement (below) and provide the information requested to Mrs. Hildebrandt by e-mail at kelle.hildebrandt@bend.k12.or.us no later than Wednesday, September 14. If you have any questions about Site Council please contact Mrs. Hildebrandt. Thank you in advance for your interest in serving on Elk Meadow School Site Council.
