

So things didn't work out. Over 50% of all marriages in the United States of America end in divorce. You will now get divorced. Remember you have a prenuptial agreement to address your pre-marital assets and debt. You are to complete a divorce agreement addressing your prenuptial agreement, children and one of the situations listed below. Whatever situation you were given in the prenuptial agreement you will have that same numbered situation for your divorce.

Situation #1

Husband or Wife #1:

You are a stock broker in New York. The stock market was not good to you and you lost all of your money. You and your wife had to move in with her parents. Since you have a degree you were able to take a job at your wife's school as a math teacher.

Situation # 2

You and your wife decided to cash in your retirement accounts and open a restaurant. Within 3 years the business was booming and now you have 6 restaurants. The total worth of your assets now are $3 million.

Situation # 3

You (husband) went to the grocery store and on a whim purchased a lottery ticket and won $5 million.
