

Chapter 6 Lesson 2 Outline

The Middle Colonies

A. The Dutch colonized the area along the Hudson River and called this colony _____.

1. The Governor of New Netherland, _____, tried to stop the English from taking over the Dutch Colony.
2. He was so unpopular, that the English took over the port and the rest of the colony _____.
3. The English renamed New Netherland _____ in honor of King Charles's brother, the Duke of York.
4. The Duke of York gave part of this land to two of his friends, Sir George Carteret and Lord John Berkeley. This land became the colony of _____.

B. In 1681, King Charles II of England gave _____ a charter to start a colony named _____, which means _____.

1. The Duke of York gave William Penn the land that would become _____, but it was part of Pennsylvania until 1704.
2. Delaware was the last to join the _____.

C. A Quaker named _____ wanted his colony to be a place where people could practice their religion freely.

1. The _____ are a religious group whose nickname comes from the belief that people should “quake before the power of the Lord”. They also called themselves the _____.

2. George Fox started the Society of Friends in 1652, and he believed that to know God, they only had to listen to _____.

D. The Middle Colonies prospered because of respect and _____ between the Dutch and the English.

1. The Middle Colonies had many deep _____ that they used to send goods to markets.

2. The _____ helped farms thrive.

3. People called the Middle Colonies the _____ of the colonies.

E. William Penn’s settlement was called _____ which means _____ in Greek.

1. He planned for Pennsylvania to be a place of _____ where people would treat each other _____, including the _____.

2. William Penn wrote to the Native Americans and said that everyone could “_____”.

3. He even _____ the Native Americans for their land and for this reason there was _____ for many years.