

How Are Families Special?

You are part of a family.
Your family is different from a friend's family. Each family is special. Some families are large. Some are small. Some families play in the snow. Others may bike together. How are families special?

Social Studies Words activity family member home

Geography

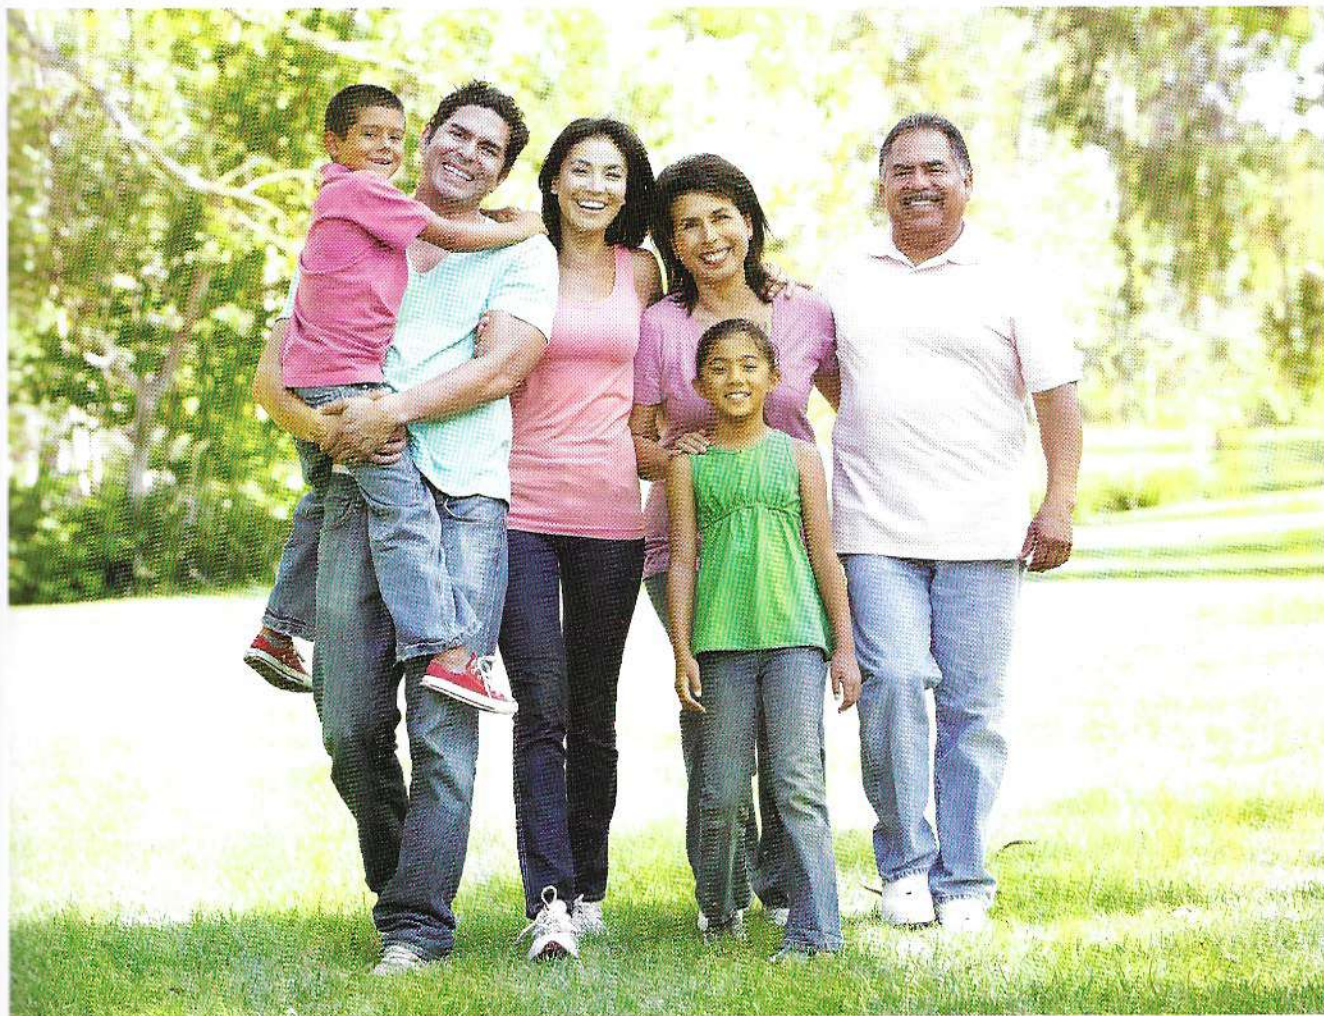

1. Families Are Special in Different Ways

All families are special. They are special in different ways. Families can be big or small. They can live in the city or in the country. They like to do different things. How is your family special?

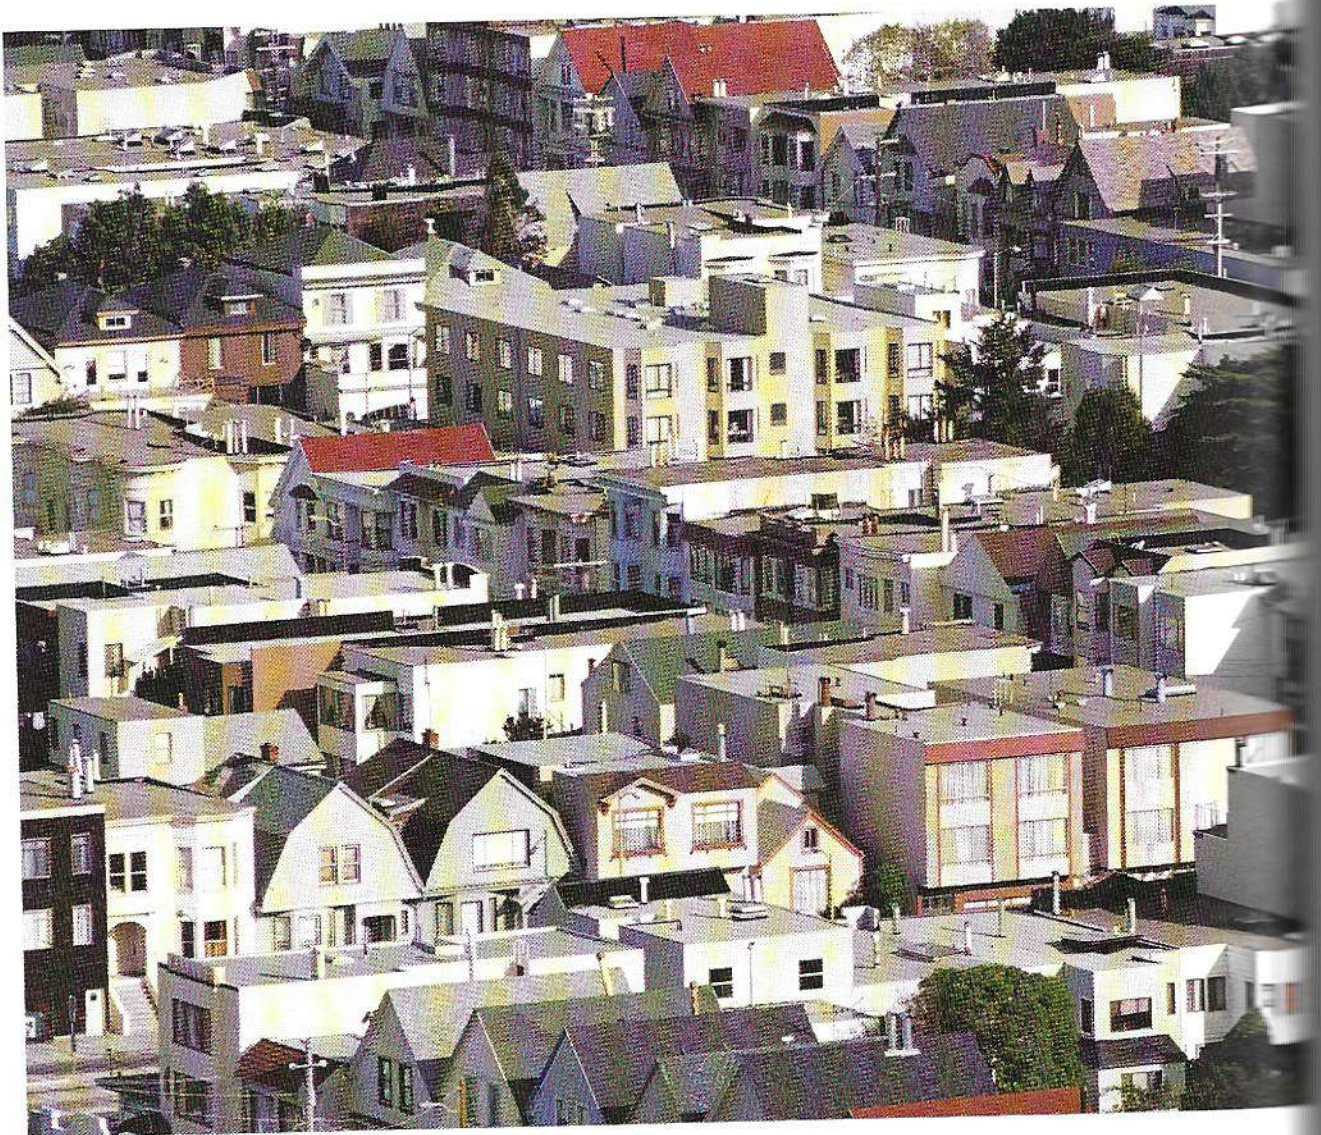

2. Families Have Different Members

You are a family member, or part of your family. Families have different members. Some families have moms and dads. Some families have brothers and sisters. Some families have lots of cousins. Who are the members of your family?

3. Families Live in Different Homes

A home is where you live. Homes may be different. Some families live in apartments. Some families live in houses or cabins. Some families live in mobile homes. Where does your family live?

4. Families Like Different Activities

Families like to do different things, or activities. Some families like to picnic in the park. Some families like to watch movies. Some families like to hike together. What does your family like to do?

Lesson Summary

Families are special in different ways.
There are big families and small families.
Families live in different kinds of homes.
They like to do different things.