

Days 31-37 Sociology
May 2020

Complete all questions in complete sentences. Answer all questions completely giving examples when necessary.

Day 31: 1. Please describe why average Americans typically consider to be the most important high points of their lives and what they consider to be the low points of their lives.

Day 32: 2. Explain what you learned about people and their role in society as a result of the time we spent class.

Day 33: 3. What functions do values and norms serve for our society in your honest opinion?

Days 34-36 4. Suppose that you are a member of a panel studying homelessness in America. The panel also includes an economist, a psychologist and an anthropologist. As a sociologist, what aspects of this issue would be of interest to you? What aspects would most likely be of interest to each of the other panel members?

Day 37: 5. What is your role in society? Please be specific and give me details.