

MEHETABEL HULVER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Sponsored by:
Beta Psi Master
Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi
Concordia MO 64020

Mehetabel Hulver was a Language Arts teacher in the Concordia R-II Schools for many years before retiring from teaching in 1977. She and her husband, Edward, lived on a farm west of Concordia. She was a member and sponsor of Beta Sigma Phi chapters in Concordia.

The Mehetabel Hulver Memorial Scholarship was established in 1983 in honor of her years of service to young people. The purpose of the scholarship is to award and assist a Concordia High School graduating senior in the pursuit of a higher education.

General Information to Applicant:

1. This is a $1,000 scholarship.
2. The scholarship is non-renewable.
3. Applicants must be planning a career that will require a minimum of two years of further education.
4. The scholarship may be applied to any college, university, or vocational-technical school the following fall. The scholarship funds may be utilized anytime during the student's college or vocational-technical career. The Beta Psi Master Chapter will hold these funds until needed.
5. Applicants should be those who will graduate and have shown achievements in their studies and have the aptitude and desire for further education.
6. All parts of the application must be typed and complete to be considered and placed in a 10x13" manilla envelope. Applicants should print their name on the outside of the packet.
7. Page 7, Counselor's page, must be filled in and signed prior to applicant sealing the envelope. A sorority member will pick up the packets and mail them for consideration.
8. Beneficiary will be chosen by a committee of judges not associated with the community of Concordia.
9. Applications may be picked up in the CHS Counselor's Office March 1, 2020 and are due April 1, 2020.
10. Scholarship will be awarded at Concordia High School Commencement exercises in May 2020.
11. A copy of the letter of acceptance from the beneficiary is due to this organization by July 1, 2020 or scholarship will be forfeited.
