Guiding Questions:
1. What are natural resources?	resources that are found on earth and occur in nature
2. How do scientists organize Earth's natural resources?	the time it takes to be created
3. What are the two main categories used to organize natural resources?	renewable nonrenewable
4. What is an inexhaustible resource?	a resource that will never run/always be available
Summary/Stoplight: What is the difference between renewable and nonrenewable resources?	